Motus f. 101

101

Handwritten text in a dense, cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript page. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. It appears to be a formal or legal document, given the structured nature of the writing and the presence of some larger, possibly decorative initials or section markers.

Continuation of the handwritten text from the top section, filling the lower half of the page. The script remains consistent, showing a high level of literacy and formal writing style. The text is densely packed, with minimal margins, characteristic of historical manuscripts.
